ALBERTO ROJAS, JR.,
Plaintiff - Appellant,

v.

ANA GAIL MEINSTER, Hon.; ERIC
MOTTER; CYNTHIA SCHIPPERT; ERIC
J. KELLY; ANDREW LOUIZEAUX;
WILLIAM J. CAMPBELL,

Defendants - Appellees.

No. 19-1392
(D.C. No. 1:19-CV-01896-LTB-GPG)
(D. Colo.)

ORDER AND JUDGMENT*

Before CARSON, BALDOCK, and MURPHY, Circuit Judges.

Plaintiff-Appellant Alberto Rojas, Jr. appeals pro se from the district court's order dismissing his complaint both with prejudice as legally frivolous and without prejudice for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. Plaintiff's amended complaint, filed

* This order and judgment is not binding precedent, except under the doctrines of law of the case, res judicata, and collateral estoppel. It may be cited, however, for its persuasive value consistent with Fed. R. App. P. 32.1 and 10th Cir. R. 32.1.

 After examining the briefs and appellate record, this panel has determined unanimously that oral argument would not materially assist in the determination of this appeal. See Fed. R. App. P. 34(a)(2); 10th Cir. R. 34.1(G). The case is therefore ordered submitted without oral argument.

in the District of Colorado, sets forth allegations stemming from a state domestic relation proceeding. Specifically, Plaintiff appears to allege the following.

First, Plaintiff alleges Ann Meinster, a state court judge, deprived Plaintiff of his constitutional rights in the state court custody proceeding. Next, Plaintiff alleges his child's guardians, Eric Motter and Cynthia Schippert, have: (1) failed to report sexual assault and harassment his child has endured at school; (2) prevented Plaintiff from communicating with his child; (3) indoctrinated Plaintiff's child with a foreign religion; (4) treated Plaintiff's child wrongfully; and (5) engaged in parental kidnapping. Third, Plaintiff alleges Eric J. Kelly, attorney for Eric Motter and Cynthia Schippert, violated the rules of professional conduct and committed criminal acts with respect to the state court custody proceeding. Fourth, Plaintiff alleges Andrew Louizeaux, a court-appointed child custody expert, slandered him in a report Defendant Louizeaux provided to the court. Finally, Plaintiff alleges William J. Campbell, the executive director at the Colorado Commission on Judicial Discipline, failed to appropriately discipline Judge Meinster for her wrongful actions as described in his complaint.

Pursuant to District of Colorado Local Rule of Civil Procedure 8.1, the district court referred the action to a magistrate judge for an initial review. After reviewing the amended complaint, the magistrate judge issued a Report and Recommendation. Therein, the magistrate judge recommended the complaint be dismissed with prejudice as to Defendants Meinster and Louizeaux due to their absolute judicial and quasi-judicial immunity, respectively. The magistrate judge further recommended the action be dismissed without prejudice as to Defendants Motter, Schippert, Kelly, and Campbell for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. Thereafter, Plaintiff filed objections to the Report and Recommendation, which were subsequently overruled by the district court. The district court adopted the Report and Recommendation in its entirety and dismissed the action. This appeal follows. Exercising jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1291, we affirm.

On appeal, Plaintiff asserts the same allegations set forth in his amended complaint. In a well-reasoned Report and Recommendation, which the district court wholly adopted, the magistrate judge competently explained why Plaintiff's allegations must be dismissed as to Defendants Meinster and Louizeaux due to their absolute judicial and quasi-judicial immunity, respectively. The magistrate judge further explained that the court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over the remaining Defendants. For the purpose of resolving this appeal, we have thoroughly reviewed the district court record and Plaintiff's appellate brief, and we discern no reversible error. Where the district court accurately analyzes an issue, we see no useful purpose in writing at length. Therefore, we AFFIRM for substantially the same reasons set forth in the district court's order dismissing Plaintiff's complaint. Plaintiff's motion to proceed in forma pauperis is GRANTED.
